DO NOT FORGET ME!

On the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ, surely, it's appropriate and important to remind ourselves of the Real Presence of our Lord in the Eucharist. However perhaps we can also focus on Jesus' command, "Do this in remembrance of me." The point is, Jesus did not want us to forget Him.

Jesus did not want His words to be forgotten. He did not want his example of mercy and forgiveness to be forgotten. He did not want His sacrifice to be forgotten. He did not want His miracles to be forgotten. He did not want his teachings to be forgotten. He did not want his command to love one another to be forgotten. He did not want His life to be forgotten.

The truth is the memorial Jesus set up worked. It was brilliant. He hasn't been forgotten. Egyptian Pharaohs built huge pyramids in the middle of the desert so that they would not be forgotten.

It didn't work- who knows the name of the Pharaohs which the Great Pyramids commemorate? Countless others have attempted to never be forgotten. They failed as well.

2,000 years ago, Jesus took bread and wine and told His friends that each time they gathered to consume this food and drink, He would enter their heart and soul. He commanded that they do this regularly, so as not to forget him. Now 2,000 years later, people gather in the millions each weekend around the world to remember Jesus. We remember His compassion, His life, His forgiveness, His miracles, and His love. We remember and Jesus dwells within us. Jesus' plan and gift to us worked. It truly was brilliant. Nothing can compare to it. Jesus wanted us to remember Him- we do. We always will!

God Loves you,

Fr. Dunn

Parish News

Rhonda Morley

As many of you may know, when I arrived at St. Catherine of Siena and St. Agnes Parish, we had only one Trustee, MJ Desnoyers, though parishes are required to have two. It is with great pleasure and gratitude that I announce that Rhonda Morley has accepted my invitation to serve as our second Trustee.

ABOUT OUR NEW TRUSTEE

Rhonda Morley was born in Milford, Massachusetts, and educated at Mount Holyoke College and the Stern School of Business. She began her career in the Corporate Investment Department at the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company and later held analytical positions at Standard & Poor's and Lehman Brothers. In 1987, Rhonda stepped away from Wall Street to focus on raising her family.

Rhonda and her husband of 46 years, Dan, reside in Old Greenwich along with their beloved 14-year-old mini-Dachshund, Molly. They are the proud parents of two adult children, Tom and Faith.

For more than fifteen years, Rhonda and Dan have been parishioners of St. Catherine of Siena and St. Agnes Parish. Throughout that time, Rhonda has been deeply involved in parish life, finding great joy and fulfillment in serving the community. She is currently a member of the Social Justice and Parish Partners committees and serves as both a Eucharistic Minister and Lector.

Rhonda has also held several leadership roles within the parish, including serving on the Collaborative Committee during the merger with St. Agnes Church, the Capital Campaign Executive Committee, as co-chair of the Parish Council from 2023–2026, and as a member of the Finance Council since 2023.

Beyond her parish involvement, Rhonda has been active in the Junior League of Greenwich, Children's Day School, and Neighbor to Neighbor. She is also an Associate of the Religious of the Sacred Heart.

OUR NEW TRUSTEE

The parish community has long been one of the greatest sources of joy in Rhonda's life, and she is honored to continue serving the community as Fr. Dunn begins his ministry as pastor and shepherd of the parish.
